Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

8. How you will pay the fee
- ☒ I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
- ☐ I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
- ☐ I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone. If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

Part 7: Sign Below

For you I have examined this petition, and I declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct.

If I have chosen to file under Chapter 7, I am aware that I may proceed, if eligible, under Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 of title 11, United States Code. I understand the relief available under each chapter, and I choose to proceed under Chapter 7.

If no attorney represents me and I did not pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help me fill out this document, I have obtained and read the notice required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b).

I request relief in accordance with the chapter of title 11, United States Code, specified in this petition.

I understand making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- ☒ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- ☐ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Schedule E/F: Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims

Be as complete and accurate as possible. Use Part 1 for creditors with PRIORITY claims and Part 2 for creditors with NONPRIORITY claims. List the other party to any executory contracts or unexpired leases that could result in a claim. Also list executory contracts on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) and on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G). Do not include any creditors with partially secured claims that are listed in Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. If more space is needed, copy the Part you need, fill it out, number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Continuation Page to this page. If you have no information to report in a Part, do not file that Part. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: List All of Your PRIORITY Unsecured Claims

1. Do any creditors have priority unsecured claims against you?

- ☒ No. Go to Part 2.
☐ Yes.

Part 2: List All of Your NONPRIORITY Unsecured Claims

3. Do any creditors have nonpriority unsecured claims against you?

- ☐ No. You have nothing to report in this part. Submit this form to the court with your other schedules.
☒ Yes.

4. List all of your nonpriority unsecured claims in the alphabetical order of the creditor who holds each claim. If a creditor has more than one nonpriority unsecured claim, list the creditor separately for each claim. For each claim listed, identify what type of claim it is. Do not list claims already included in Part 1. If more than one creditor holds a particular claim, list the other creditors in Part 3. If you have more than three nonpriority unsecured claims fill out the Continuation Page of Part 2.

5. Use this page only if you have others to be notified about your bankruptcy, for a debt that you already listed in Parts 1 or 2. For example, if a collection agency is trying to collect from you for a debt you owe to someone else, list the original creditor in Parts 1 or 2, then list the collection agency here. Similarly, if you have more than one creditor for any of the debts that you listed in Parts 1 or 2, list the additional creditors here. If you do not have additional persons to be notified for any debts in Parts 1 or 2, do not fill out or submit this page.

AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE LEGAL SERVICES:
CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY CASE

December 15, 2015

Krista Schriml
4308 N Clark Street, #2
Chicago, IL 60613

THIS IS A WRITTEN AGREEMENT REGARDING LEGAL FEES

Lawyers are required under the Rules of Professional Conduct to communicate to a client the basis for the legal fees and the hourly rates that they will charge when beginning the representation of a client. This is a binding legal contract that governs our attorney-client relationship.

Chapter 7 gives debtors important rights, such as stopping the collection efforts of creditors and discharging debt. Chapter 7 also puts burdens on debtors, such as the burden of making full and complete disclosures of their financial situation. It is important for debtors who file a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case to understand their rights and responsibilities. Debtors are entitled to expect certain services to be performed by their attorneys. Debtors also have responsibilities to their attorneys. Please make sure that you read this agreement carefully and understand all its terms. Your signature at the end of this agreement is an acknowledgment that you read this agreement and understand it.

ALLOWANCE AND PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES

We agree to represent you in connection with a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case. We agree to provide the legal services necessary to file a chapter 7 case for you, prepare the bankruptcy schedules and statement of financial affairs, attend the meeting of creditors, assist you with your creditors and seek a chapter 7 discharge of your debts.

The legal fee for the chapter 7 case will be $650.00. You must also pay the filing fee in the amount of $335.00. You must pay the legal fee and the filing fee, a total of $985.00 before we will file the chapter 7 case for you.

We consider the legal fee an advance retainer under Illinois. We will deposit the legal fee into our operating account. We consider the legal fee for the chapter 7 bankruptcy case earned upon receipt. You have the right to request that the legal fee be placed into our client trust account. However, that request may affect the amount that we charge for your chapter 7 case.

BEFORE THE CASE IS FILED

You agree to fully cooperate with us with respect to the Chapter 7 case. You agree to provide us with full, complete and accurate information, financial and otherwise. When you file a case, you are required to completely and honestly disclose to the Court, and in documents publicly available, all the creditors that you owe and all of the property that you own.

You must list all of your creditors regardless of the status of each obligation. You must provide us with the creditor's name, complete address and the account number. If you have a balance due to a creditor, you must list the creditor. If you owe money to family members or friends, they are creditors and you must list them as creditors.

You must disclose all of the property that you own. You must disclose all real property. You must disclose your right to recovery any property, including recovery from lawsuits, tax refunds and inheritances.

You understand that we will not be able to provide adequate representation if you fail to provide us with complete and accurate information, fail to fully cooperate with us, or fail to fulfill your obligations as a Chapter 7 debtor. You further understand that your failure to provide information, to cooperate with us or to fulfill your duties during the Chapter 7 case may increase the costs of the legal services we render, or may result in the Chapter 7 case being dismissed by the Court.

We must counsel you regarding the advisability of filing either a Chapter 13 or a Chapter 7 case, discuss both procedures and answer your questions. We must inform you that filing a Chapter 7 case may have an adverse effect on your credit score and may impair your credit rating for as long as ten years. We must inform you that the Porter Law Network does not provide legal services relating to credit, credit reporting or credit repair. We will not be able to assist you with your credit or credit related issues that are not specifically related to the filing of the Chapter 7 bankruptcy case.

We will personally review and sign the completed petition, bankruptcy schedules, statement of financial affairs as well as amendments, whether filed with the petition or later. We will timely prepare and file your petition, schedules, statements and schedules.

AFTER THE CASE IS FILED

We will advise you of the requirement to attend the meeting of creditors, and notify you of the date, time and location of the meeting. You agree to appear punctually at the meeting of creditors (also called the section 341 meeting) with recent proof of income, a picture identification card and a social security card. You must be present in time for check-in and when your case is called for the actual examination.

You must complete a Personal Financial Management Course. This is a different course than the Consumer Credit Counseling Course that you took to become eligible to file the Chapter 7 case. There is a separate fee paid to the course provider. This course must be completed before receiving a discharge. If you complete the course after receiving a discharge, the Court will charge a fee of $260.00 to reopen your case.

We will timely submit to the Chapter 7 Trustee properly documented proof of your income. We will timely prepare, file and serve any necessary amended statements and schedules and any change of address, in accordance with information provided by you. You will incur a fee of $30.00 to amend your schedules. You will notify us of any change in your address or telephone number.

We will provide any other legal services necessary for the administration of your case before the Bankruptcy Court. However, we will not represent you in connection with an adversary proceeding filed against you by a creditor.

JOINT OBLIGATIONS WITH OTHERS

You may have joint debts with family members or friends such as someone that cosigned an obligation for you or someone that allows you to use their credit card. If that is the case, your filing a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case may adversely impact that person's credit or credit report. You may also have bills or debts that are not in your name but in the name of a family member or friend, such as a telephone bill or utility bill. Please be informed that the bankruptcy case and the automatic stay which stops the collection efforts of creditors apply only to the person filing bankruptcy. Therefore, the bankruptcy case will not apply to bills or debts that are not in your name. Such creditors are able to pursue collections efforts in the normal course of business.

NONDISCHARGEABILITY

We have informed you that the following types of debt may not be discharged in a Chapter 7 case: 1) federal taxes; 2) state taxes; 3) student loans; 4) alimony and domestic support obligations; 5) restitution arising out of a criminal conviction, 6) debts for death, personal injury caused while under the influence of drugs or alcohol; and 7) certain fines, penalties and administrative judgments. In addition, debts and obligations affected by fraud or maliciousness or certain debts incurred in connection with property settlements arising out of a separation agreement or divorce decree are not automatically excluded from discharge. In some instances, creditors must ask the Court to determine that these debts or obligations are excepted from discharge.

We must inform you that a Chapter 7 discharge will only discharge those debts that existed before the case is filed and are properly included in the Schedules filed with the Court. If you fail to disclose a debt to us or incur new debt, neither will be discharged and you will be responsible to the creditors. If you fail to pay those creditors, you will remain subject to collection efforts.

Our legal services for this chapter 7 case do not include representing you if a creditor files an adversary proceeding to determine that a debt is not dischargeable.

CREDIT ACCOUNTS AND CREDIT REPORTING

Please be informed that we can help you to obtain relief from burdensome debts by filing a chapter 7 bankruptcy case to obtain a discharge of the debts. Bankruptcy will put in place an automatic stay to stop lawsuits, foreclosure, garnishments, repossessions and levies. However, we must inform you that filing a chapter 7 bankruptcy case will have a negative effect on your credit, credit rating, and your ability to obtain credit in the future. We do not offer credit repair services. We do not assist our clients with credit reporting issues or in obtaining credit in the future.

If you file a chapter 7 bankruptcy case, you will not be able to continue to use credit cards. Your credit card and credit accounts may be cancelled even if you have no balance due. Your creditors may no longer send you statements or restrict online access while the bankruptcy case is pending. We will not be able to assist you with such actions taken by your creditors.

FINAL MATTERS

If we believe that you are not complying with your duties under the bankruptcy law and responsibilities under this agreement we may apply for a Court Order allowing us to withdraw from the case.

Either party may terminate this agreement with or without cause at any time. The termination of this agreement will not change your obligation to pay for the legal services we have performed for you. In the event this agreement is terminated by you, we will return all files in our possession provided you have paid all outstanding legal fees and expenses.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER §342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $39 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total fee $299)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $274)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $1039)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $239)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.

Many filing deadlines change on December 1, 2009. Of special note, 12 rules that set 15 days to act are amended to require action within 14 days, including Rule 1007(c), filing the initial case papers; Rule 3015(b), filing a chapter 13 plan; Rule 8009(a), filing appellate briefs; and Rules 1019, 1020, 2015, 2015.1, 2016, 4001, 4002, 6004, and 6007.
